A photograph of a business meeting. Several people in business attire are gathered around a table, looking at various documents and charts. One person is pointing at a line graph on a document titled "Business activity of company and subdivisions". Another document shows a pie chart titled "Relative activity of subdivisions of main company". A third document features a bar chart titled "Visiting activity of" and a world map titled "Worldwide customer activity". The scene is dimly lit with a blue tint, and a laptop is visible in the background. There are yellow decorative squares in the corners of the image.
